Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Oswego; An Historical Address: Delivered July 15, 1896, at the Centennial Celebration of the Evacuation by the British of Fort Ontario; Oswego, New York, and Their Surrender of the Military Posts of the Northern Frontier to the United States The event in the history of the country commemorated here to-day well merits the marked attention it receives. The presence of these distinguished guests, the cessation of our customary employments, this procession of soldiery and citizens, the oration of a famous orator, accord with the significance of the occasion. This old town, endeared to its citizens for its native charms and for the cherished memories and associations of family and friends, happy at welcoming within its walls to-day this great company who is come hither to honor its notable career, has a horizon in history far wider than the compass of yonder lake or yonder shore. The place and time suggest to every thoughtful mind occurrences and scenes not easily surpassed for substantial importance and striking effect. Here, in a primeval forest, long ago, an old...
