S. 18th February, 1793, should be in the judicial district where the seizure was made, without regard to the place where the forfeiture was created. Keene vs. The United States, 5 Cranch s R. 304. 1c. An appeal from the District Court for the District of Maine, in an admiralty cause, does not lie directly to the Supreme Court of the United States, but to the Circuit Court Of the District Court of the United States. of the District of Massachusetts. The Sally vs. The United States, 5 Cranch s R. 372 /. The rule that the trial of questions of prize belongs exclusively to the courts of the country of the captors, has exceptions; one of which is where the capturing vessel has been illegally equipped in a neutral country. It is competent to the courts of such neutral nation to punish the offenders, and, in case the prizes taken by them are brought infra presidia, to order them to be restored. The Brig Alcorta and Cargo vs. Bias Moran, 9 Cranch s R. 359. The District Courts of the United States have jurisdiction for this purpose, and where a French vessel, whose force had been increased at New Orleans, captured a Spanish vessel, which was brought into a port of the United States, she was decreed by the District Court to be restored, and the decree was affirmed. Ibid. m. The District Court may entertain suits for...
