Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from A Review of the Life, Character and Political Opinions of Zachary Taylor The position which Zachary Taylor now occupies before the country as a candidate for the Chief Magistracy of the Republic, excites a very natural curiosity on all hands, with respect to his life, character, and opinions. This interest which we find everywhere manifested for Gen. Taylor, exists independently of his Presidential nomination, and has even a more solid foundation than any civil distinction which he may have received. It rests upon those higher qualities of personal character, which in all ranks of life, and all ages of the world, have conferred dignity upon the man, the warrior, and the statesman, - indomitable courage, moderation, and humanity. The life of no public man of our own day, in any military or civil station, can show so many instances of the exercise of these rare virtues as that of Gen. Taylor. - Reared amidst the perils and privations of a frontier settlement, and necessitated, through the whole period of his early life, to the performance of labors and hardships, incident to his situation, of no ordinary severity, his simple habits, unaffected and modest virtues, his courage and patience, are but a natural and legitimate consequence. It is not the design of these pages to go into any extended narrative of the events of Gen. Taylor s life. Most authentic and reliable histories of his career, have already been laid before the public. A deep conviction of his extraordinary merit has long since found a place in the popular mind and heart; and the energies of all good men are now directed towards the best means...
