Xulon Press, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This collection of commentaries and insights comes from the author's pursuit of a stronger awareness and relationship with God through understanding Jesus and one's purpose as a Christian. Each chapter is filled with sections to promote weighing and considering topics in the Christian faith. The author logically describes his pursuit of knowledge of God and Jesus in his opening introduction chapter, which will connect to readers in seeking God in a rational manner. His methodical and healthy pursuit for knowledge of God and Jesus will encourage readers to do the same also. Several topics are covered in each section, centered on the book's main idea of readings to weigh and consider in the world today. Each titled insight blends together scripture with commentary to provide unique revelations that will prompt readers to consider the subject matter and how it affects their faith in God and Jesus. Keeping each message/insight brief, but developed enough in content to fully explain the message, will strengthen the focus on content for the readers and the characterization of true embodiment of Jesus in people. Biblical Insights and Special Thoughts in an inspiring collection of perceptions and revelations that the author received when he wholeheartedly searched for God through reading the Bible, prayer and sharing his faith in service to others. Each insight is logically explained and relatable to what Christians experience in the world today and what God might be trying to open up in them to mature in Christ. David Leatherman is a husband to his wife Dorinda, father of two daughters and a son. They have given him nine perfect grandkids; or at least he thinks they...
