Excerpt: . . . there and usually take our skis along and although we dont slide down the big hill, there are several smaller ones that furnish good sport. I had a letter from Joe George a few days ago in which he states that he has a contract for another year with his firm, so he wont be coming back to Chicago right away. He has been thinking of getting a canoe and has been looking over some of the clubs around New York with the idea of joining, but he hasnt found any of them with the same spirit as the old S. S. C. He says, he would like to hear from some of the boys, and his address is: c0 Geo. Borgfeldt, 16th St. at Irving Place, New York City. We hope Joe will spend his vacation with us next summer, like he did last, and we will try to show him a good time. I have received a letter from Mr. De La Rue of Melbourne, Australia, which I hope Otto will find room to print in this issue of the Club News. It will be of interest to the local canoeists to hear of the progress being made in that far off land in our favorite sport. Mr. De La. Rue also enclosed newspaper clippings, a copy of the program of one of their races and part of an illustrated magazine with pictures of the Henley regatta, in which the canoe...
